Barry is planning to attend. I think he was expecting to make some very brief introductory comments.

Hello all -

As you know, we have a stakeholder kickoff meeting planned for Tuesday, February 14 for the reinitiation of consultation on the LTO. It has been requested to include all the agencies in opening remarks as all of our agencies will have roles in the upcoming process. Ideally if more than just Reclamation give opening remarks it will be all of the agencies to show uniform support. What do you think?

Please let us know by Friday if you would like to give opening remarks. Attached are our talking points if they are helpful. The first section that Pablo Arroyave is presenting for Reclamation are the kinds of things we were thinking for opening remarks - we are all in this together, etc.

Thank you,
