Maria,

Here are the notes that Garwin and I put together from our first workshop meeting. This is the version that I sent to Eric last week to request his help to answer the getbacks. We have not shared with BOR yet--I was waiting until Eric responded to the getbacks first. That said, I just got an email bounceback from Eric that he is out of the office until April 10, so I assume this will be the most current version of this document that we have for the next week or more.

Note the comment bubbles in the document now are Brycen's attempt to address the getbacks. I'll keep you posted as I hear from Eric about responses.

Thanks,
Christina
